Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 06 July 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3-9, 11, 12-15, 17, 18, 19-21, 23, 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Earl et al.

Earl discloses an extruded heat sink 10 for use in cooling an electronic component 30, the heat sink having a body or base 13 with a flat generally planar surface and two laterally facing exterior surfaces, a plurality of thin fins 12 extending outwardly from the body 13 and being elongated in the direction along said two lateral exterior surfaces, each of the lateral surfaces having elongated ridges or grooves 14 formed thereabout extending the full length of the lateral exterior surfaces; the heat sink does not require any machining; the heat sink further comprising a second fin 18, 20 extending from the first and the last fins which are oppositely arranged on the both ends of the base; the groove 14 formed in the first and the last fin and constructed to engage a retainer 40 therein; the retainer maintains a contact between the second side of the heat sink and the heat generating component 30; the groove in the first fin is generally coplanar with the groove formed in the second fin; the groove in the first fin and the groove in the second fin are a common distance from the base; the plurality of fins 12 extends a distance from the base longer than a distance between the first and the last fins 18, 20; the plurality of fins 12 are generally perpendicular to the base 13.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 10, 16, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Earl et al.

Earl discloses the claimed invention except aluminum as the material. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the heat sink of aluminum, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-24 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-4, 14-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,633,485. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims include the heat sink having grooves on the outside surface to accommodate retainers for attaching the heat sink to a heat-generating component as well as other elements.
